

SIMON TYLER

SPEAKER | COACH | AUTHOR

Speaking Bio:

Simon Tyler is an inspiring and entertaining speaker, coach and author who works with hundreds of business executives and their teams to influence and provoke positive change.

Over his career Simon has become a passionate advocate of Simplicity, Impact and Attitude and his pragmatic and stimulating books, articles and speeches reflect this. Simon's connectivity and energy reach out and empower audiences forward, helping them discover and tap into sources of confidence previously undiscovered.

Simon is the simplicity guru, focusing on cutting through endless complication and frustration to enable clients to maximise their impact and transform attitudes. Simon connects with his audience and creates meaningful action and change.

Simon has spoken at a huge range of events for many international companies never failing to motivate, engage and create impact. He has been hired by many leading and evolving global corporations, working with their teams and individually with leaders, including ANZ Bank, Bank of New York Mellon, BP, BT, Castrol, Cisco, Coutts, DuPont, HSBC, Lloyds Banking Group, Marks & Spencer, Morgan Stanley, O2, PPG, RBS, VW Group, and he has been engaged privately by executives across the world. Simon is the author of four books – the latest of which, 'The "Attitude" Book' will be published in late 2018.
